

TEN THOUSAND AD MEN VISIT CHICAGO

Speaker Predicts All High Schools and Colleges Will Have Courses in Advertising Soon.

MONSTER PAGEANT TONIGHT

CHICAGO, June 21.—Men whose writings bristle on the advertising pages of the nation's publications gathered here today from every state in the country to attend the eleventh annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

Tonight there will be a monster advertising pageant in which 5,000 persons are expected to march. One hundred and fifty floats representing allegorical scenes in American history and twenty brass bands will be in the parade.

The delegations were to be arrayed in multi-colored uniforms and were to have miniature pageants as mascots. The Texas delegation of 20 brought a crocodile led in a silver leash.

Within the next five years all high schools, business colleges and universities undoubtedly will include advertising as a part of their courses, according to Llewellyn E. Pratt, New York City, chairman of the educational committee.

There are now twenty-six institutions of higher education offering courses in advertising. Mr. Pratt said in his report. "Of schools and Young Men's Christian associations there are forty-one conducting regular classes in advertising."

FRANK'S SENTENCE IS COMMUTED BY GOVERNOR SLATON

MAJ. NEWELL, to leave the factory for two hours; that the same evening Frank called Lee on the telephone; that Lee found the double inner doors locked, all of which things he had never done before; that a cord similar to that with which the girl was strangled was found in quantities on the metal room floor, and in less quantities in the basement where the body was discovered.

Conley's Story Inconsistent. "The most startling and spectacular testimony in the case was that given by a negro, Jim Conley, who finished in the chain gang," the statement says. He referred to the "murder notes" found beside the body, which Conley finally admitted he had written at Frank's dictation.

Conley claimed Frank asked him to come to the factory on Saturday and watch for him, as he had done, which, he explained, meant that Frank expected to meet some women. The governor says, "Conley occupied a dark place beside the elevator behind some boxes."

Conley mentioned several male and female employees who went up the steps to the second floor, where Frank's office was located. He said Mary Phagan went up the stairs; then in a few minutes he heard footsteps going toward the metal room; that he heard a door slam closed. In a few minutes Frank stamped and Conley locked the door and then Frank whistled and Conley unlocked the door and went upstairs. He said Frank was shivering and trembling and told him to make advances to the girl and the girl refused him, and he struck her too hard and she fell and hit her head against something and he did not know how badly she was hurt.

Conley said he found the girl in the metal room with a cloth tied about the neck as though to catch blood, although there was no blood at the place. According to Conley's story, Frank went to get a piece of cloth and wrap the body in it and Conley got a piece of bed ticking and tied up the body, carried it to near the dressing room, dropped it, then called on Frank to assist him. He said that he and Frank took the body to the basement in the elevator; that they rolled the body out of the cloth; then went to Frank's office; that Emma Clark and Corintha Hall came into the office and Frank put him in the wardrobe and after they left that Frank dictated the murder notes.

The statement then points out alleged inconsistencies in Conley's story and mentions several contradictions in his story as related in various affidavits. Among them, he said, was evidence that the elevator had not been used Saturday afternoon; that Frank could not have carried the girl down the hatchway, while Conley, a powerful negro, could have done so; that he had never seen or been seen in the factory; that it was agreed that the murder could not have been committed before 11:30 p. m. and yet Conley had Emma Clark and Corintha Hall in Frank's office after the body had been disposed of, while unimpeached testimony showed that they reached the factory at 11:30 and left at 11:45 a. m.

Two Hearings Held

Two hearings were held here on Frank's application for clemency. The first was before the state prison commission, May 15, and the other before the governor, the latter hearing extended through several days and ended June 14.

Before the prison commission oral argument on Frank's behalf was made by his counsel, Frank, by Justice, lawyers and prominent citizens of Georgia, Illinois and Massachusetts. Petitions bearing hundreds of thousands of names from various state legislatures, societies and committees and thousands of individual letters urging clemency for Frank were presented to the commission. In opposition to the application there were filed a letter from Solicitor Dorsey, who prosecuted Frank, and a protest from citizens of Cobb county, Georgia, where Mary Phagan formerly lived. The commission recommended against clemency.

Frank's counsel, prior to the clemency appeal, had made seven unsuccessful attempts before the county superior and state supreme court to obtain a new trial or have the verdict set aside. The federal district court refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus and the United States supreme court declined to grant a writ of error for review of the case and also denied Frank's appeal in habeas corpus proceedings. Four times the sentence of death was passed upon him.

Frank's removal from the jail here was carefully planned and the officers were able to elude newspaper men and other who might have recognized his prisoner. Leaving the jail by a rear door shortly before midnight, they went in an automobile to the terminal station, where a deputy purchased tickets for the party to Macon. Frank was not handcuffed and was without the heavy spectacles he usually wears. A black slouch hat was pulled down over his face.

"It was a terrible 'beyond a reasonable doubt and absolute certainty' for which the law provides in allowing life imprisonment instead of execution. This case has been marked by doubt. The trial judge doubted. Two judges of the state supreme court doubted. Two judges of the United States supreme court doubted. One of the three prison commissioners doubted.

"In my judgment by granting a commutation in this case I am sustaining the jury, the judge and the appellate tribunal and at the same time am discharging that duty which is placed upon me by the state constitution."

MINISTER SULLIVAN IS DECLARED UNFIT

WASHINGTON, June 21.—James M. Sullivan, American minister to the Dominican republic, is held to be temperamentally unfit for his office by the report of Senator Phelan, who conducted an investigation into charges. It is understood the report, however, finds the minister is not guilty of any illegal or dishonest acts. President Wilson has finished reading the report and it will be made public soon. Meanwhile officials declined to discuss it.

TWO AMERICANS ARE ARRESTED IN RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, June 21.—John Reed, an American war correspondent, and Boardman Robinson, an artist, are under arrest at Kholm, Russia, for having entered the military zone without permission. Ambassador Mays at Petrograd reported their detention today and asked for information which would establish their status and secure their release.

British Envoy Rests

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, has gone to North Shore, Mass., to spend a week with his family. Counselor Barclay is in charge of the embassy.

Frank Reasserts Innocence

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., June 21.—At the Georgia prison here, dressed in stripes denoting the lowest grade prisoner, Leo M. Frank today again protested his innocence of the murder of Mary Phagan and expressed a conviction that "a day is not far distant when I will be exonerated."

Frank said he had no intimation of what was going to happen last night when officers went to his cell in Atlanta to get him for the trip here. He expressed gratitude toward Governor Slaton and said he felt intuitively that he would at last be commuted his sentence. Frank will be known as "Convict No. 88."

Reasonable Doubt Exists

In conclusion the governor said: "In any event the performance of my duty under the constitution is a matter of my conscience. The responsibility rests where the power is reposed. Judge Noon, with that awful sense of responsibility which probably came over him as he thought of that judge before whom he would shortly appeal, calls to me from another world to request that I do that which he should have done.

have no intention of defending Lemberg to the last, or have prepared their main defensive lines on positions not yet reached by the German forces. With less than a score of miles separating the Austro-German lines from Lemberg these points must soon be elucidated.

It is pointed out further by British observers that the latest Russian communication hardly indicates such overwhelming success as their opponents claim, although it is admitted that the battering of the Teutonic phalanx has won further ground.

French Making Gains

French and German accounts of operations in the western theater show the usual divergencies, but the detailed reports from Paris satisfy the British that their allies are making such an advance as will shortly permit more active operations in the sphere occupied by the British army. The French advance north of Arras, it is thought here, must have pushed the Germans into a narrow front which will render some of their masses of troops comparatively ineffective. The gains in Alsace show that the French are drawing close to the area of permanent German fortifications.

The arrival at the bedside of Sultan Mehemed of Prof. James Adolph Israel, the German specialist, indicates that earlier reports that the sultan was suffering from a mild attack of catarrh did not show his real condition. The fact that the sultan was unable to make his customary Friday visit to the mosque last week showed that his illness was not slight, as such an omission is considered justified only by extreme necessity.

French War Office Report

PARIS, June 21.—The French War office this afternoon issued a statement on the progress of hostilities reading: "In action to the north of Arras we yesterday made further progress in the direction of Souches by the occupation of several trenches and by drawing near to the northwest side of the village. "There was an artillery engagement which lasted all night long near Domphre, which is to the west of Pernone. An attack on the part of the enemy, which had been preceded by the explosion from three mines, was stopped short by the fire of our artillery and our infantry.

"On the heights of the Meuse in the sector of the Calonne trenches we maintained all our gains in spite of a counter attack of great violence delivered at 4 o'clock in the morning. "In Lorraine near Reillon we have followed up our advantages. The entire first line of the enemy has been occupied by us along a front of 1,500 yards. At the end of the day a strong enemy column endeavored to deliver a counter attack, but was dispersed, the enemy having abandoned this ground. All the German trenches occupied by us are found to be full of bodies. We took about twenty prisoners.

"In the vicinity of Mount Bonhomme, in the Vosges, we have taken by assault the eastern spur of Mount Calvary, made progress on the neighboring hills and gone as far as the approaches to the village of Bonhomme. "We continued to make progress in the valley of the Fecht, and we have gone beyond the Cemetery of Metzeral. To the southwest the hand-to-hand fighting is continuing. Here we also have gained ground and taken 150 prisoners, among whom are four commissary officers and eleven under officers."

Kansas River is Falling at Topeka

KANSAS CITY, June 21.—While the Kansas river was rising today the local weather bureau took a hopeful outlook on the flood situation. Unless there are further heavy rains, the observer said, danger of serious damage had passed. The Kansas river here stood at 24.7 feet this morning.

Despite showers during the night, the same stream fell more than a foot at Topeka and government officials declared the water would continue to recede in the absence of fresh precipitations.

No new rises were reported along the upper reaches of the Kansas river throughout the state of Kansas.

Caminetti Case Will Be Reviewed by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The supreme court today reconsidered its denial of a review of the conviction of F. Drew Caminetti of San Francisco, Cal., on charges of violating the white slave law, and granted a review. It also granted a review of the conviction of Maury I. Biggs, convicted with Caminetti, in the same case.

The International Harvester company anti-trust case was today restored to the docket for reargument by the supreme court. This postpones a decision until fall, at least.

A week ago the court declined to review the Caminetti case and no announcement was made today to indicate why it has reversed itself. The appeals of both Caminetti and Biggs were the first to reach the court in which it was contended the Mann law did not apply to a case where the element of commercialized vice was absent.

Fragments of Bomb Which Destroyed the Nebraskan Are Here

NEW YORK, June 21.—Fragments of the torpedo or mine which damaged the American steamship Nebraskan off the southern coast of Ireland in May were in possession of the State department at yesterday in a small pouch from the American embassy at London, brought over by the American steamship New York. The pieces of metal were sent to be examined by experts in hope that they could determine definitely whether the Nebraskan was blown up by a mine or a torpedo.

Captain Roberts of the New York said he varied the course of that steamer at least twenty miles on each trip when passing the southwest coast of Ireland to avoid submarines.

AUTOMOBILE DRIVER IS FINED HUNDRED

LOGAN, Ia., June 21.—(Special.)—After entering a plea of guilty to the charge of neglecting to stop, give his name and number of car and assistance if necessary, Judge Thomas Arthur fined S. A. Myers $100 and costs here Saturday afternoon for smashing the John I. Rowe carriage Sunday evening, June 13.

It is also stated that Mr. Myers settled with John I. Rowe and Mr. McGovern for smashing their carriages Sunday evening at Missouri Valley.

Though Mr. Rowe did not know the driver of the car when his carriage was smashed, yet a splinter of an automobile spoke gave Sheriff M. D. Myers a clue and he followed up the clue and found the automobile in an Omaha garage, and later the owner northwest of Missouri Valley.

Queen or Dairy Maid Ambition the Same

In the expectant mother's mind there is no limit to what the future has in store, and yet during the period of expectancy, much depends upon the physical comfort of the mother. One of the best aids is a remedy known as "Mother's Friend." Applied over the pains in the back, it penetrates to the network of nerves, relieves the pains, and stretches of cords and ligaments, makes them pliant, induces daily comfort, restful nights, a calm mind and pleasant anticipation. You use it with your own hand, apply it as needed, and at once feel a sense of relief.

Mothers who have learned all this from experience tell of the blessed relief from morning sickness, the absence of strain and the undisturbed healthful influence imparted to the coming baby.

One very important thing to remember about "Mother's Friend," it can not excite any other influence than to simply lubricate the parts, make them more firm to naturally withstand the constantly increasing pressure. And as the muscles continue to expand, the dition and adjust themselves without undue strain. "Mother's Friend" is entirely free of any drug influence whatever and may be used freely at all times.

Get a bottle of this splendid help today. Then write nearest druggist or send for it. Then write Bristol Regulator Co., 754 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a valuable book of instruction for expectant mothers.

"Mother's Friend" is recommended everywhere by women who have used it. And you can read some very interesting letters if you write for this book.
